How to Create a Poem

By an eHow Contributor

Instructions

- 1. Remember that inspiration is key. Put yourself in an inspiring spot. Be in nature, with a pen and paper. Close the door to your bedroom and put on some soft music. Sit at a cafe and watch people pass by. Be in whatever space inspires you the most. If you still need a spark of inspiration, close your eyes. Often, much of our perception is based on only what we see. Try perceiving the world with your ears and other senses. Feel the wind against your face. Creating poetry can be very sensual!
- 2. Have your writing tools handy. Start with an idea or intention. What do you want to say in the poem? What feeling or message do you want to convey? Write down your ideas. Once you have an idea planted, the creative process has begun. It's okay, too, if you find yourself filled with emotion with words flowing quickly, without much thought. Whatever your experience is, go with it!
- 3. Begin writing. Write in stanzas, in groups of short or long phases, using as many action words as possible. Action words are words that create motion or imagery, invoke feeling--that are alive! For instance, "deep blue sorrow" gives an image and feeling. As you write, group your phrases into stanzas. Each stanza should portray a complete idea or experience. Then add a space. See if you can set a pattern of meter and or rhyme in the stanzas. Try to create a pattern using the syllables in each line. For instance, "deep blue sorrow" has four syllables. Make your next line have seven syllables, and then the next line have four again. Play! The poem can be as short or as long as you want.

- 4. Stay out of self-judgment. Creativity and judgment work against each other. If you find yourself stopping at each word, thinking it doesn't sound good, you must get over it. Allow your words to come alive. Leave the editing for later, when you're not in the process of creating the poem.
- 5. Review your poem. Read it out loud and see how you feel as the words are voiced. Did you fulfill your intention for the poem? Did your initial idea take off and create a complete experience? If not, rewrite until the poem feels complete to you. It's okay if you leave your poem incomplete. Some poets write a few lines one week, and a few lines the next week.

Like blossom in the night

Its beauty

But there is no one see

And never be beggary again

When I open my eyes
I see your face in every step of my
You are the light that illuminates the steps

And thou art only reason I live by your love
I was saved and now I like only for you
I love you so much my God
And thank you to all you giving for me

(Kristina Elisabet)

"Love"

Love is like chocolate
Will taste sweet at the beginning of the meeting
And will taste bitter
When it ends

Love is like a wind It embraces us with passion Leaving the scent of fresh flowers Tingling our mind

Love is like a water bubble Beautiful to see from far Even rainbows are visible But a tender touch will break it Leaving a refreshing sprinkle

Love is like rain
If it's pouring a little, it will be profitable
And if it's heavy, it will be harm
Its love

(Firdha Fitriana)

Mother

Mother you like the sun
Is shining on the world
Love you endlessly

I cry now

(Nurul Puspita Sari)

As You're Nothing

The browns and the greens And those grow like beans As it forms like one And fails to have gone As whole as stand among strengths And lead to be ready to battle against Yet now that everything ruins And carries us out far from wins Now we are not the same again Leaving me with lots of pains And you... Bring me in sorrows And laughing out loud with bows I wish I couldn't see you And I wish I couldn't hear you I like being alone Than waiting you from come

(Saefudin)

Light of Angel

When I'm alone Cloaked in a vacuum I hope Find a light In the dark corner But ... .... Are there any? Until when I'm like this? Where is my light? I'm tired, I'm afraid Angel .... Come down to earth Bring light Bring warmth I rise and give a little happiness For me That there is no longer empty No longer dark No longer tired No longer afraid Existing Only hope Remaining A light for put an end to all suffering Of angels Where my angel ....???

(Kusmiati)

This is Me

Instead I act sweet words I'm not begging for love I'm not a sacrifice of love I did not love impingement I was ....

A people who tried to be strong Try to follow your footsteps And continue to follow your current Do not sit on my hands to try this Ask God conscious you Unconscious of the meaning my present Remind you about the story This is me .... I was hurt Wounded by love marginalized This is me .... I was hurt Tried smile on injuries This is me .... I'm always there for you For yesterday, today, tomorrow And forever ..... If time nevertheless did not wake you Let the death deliver me to your face

So you're quickly aware meaning of me

(Uchti Arifah)

Sincere Love Unrequited

If it is the best for you I would be willing to go, but ... By the time you feel lonely Come to me I will always be there for you Because My happiness is not at the moment I have you But at the time I could see Smile and your laughter I will not let Shed tears again Even if you never take me there But there is a sincere love of my heart Which is not visible but Can you feel If the feeling is always understood Certainly achieved true love (Ayu Putu Srikartika)

Little Candle

Believe me, I was a candle
I was a little candle
I want to be a candle in your life
Although I know ...
I will be destroyed in a few minutes
But I'm willing to give a little light means in your life ...
Even though you're not with me ... ...

(Retno Puspasari)

Laughter in My Grief

String of words tenderly And a thousand love poems that I had Unable to compete with her beautiful face You like the beauty That binds my heart I hope you look Time to stop touching you Such as touching something fragile but very valuable Smile can give meaning in my life You look like a paradise Before me And give me your touch live far More meaningful You're the laughter in my grief You're in the spirit of my tired And you are in my beautiful dream Until later you were in my heart

(Dwi Ratna Sari)

Guard My Heart

Is there you know what I'm feeling I do not have you can languish But I'll still keep my heart Her love until it turned on I'm sure no one will love you Like myself Although breathing should be separate from my body I will not quit I will not give up on love I often see the indecision in your eyes Is between him and me But I'm still going to keep my heart Until it's time to turn your love on me I face the fact you're with him But my love for you will not Allowed time cooped up forever

(Vicky Sukma Widiastuti)

You

If you know What's in my heart? What am I feeling right If you can feel I beg ...reply to this feeling! Please express my feeling that there is in your hearts! If you know ... Only you are there in the heart ... Only your name is engraved in the soul Only your face is in my shadow ... You ... Has spread the love in my heart Have divided wonderful taste in my heart If only I who felt Love is arises ... When I look at you And all of a sudden feeling that arises In my heart ... ... just because you in the heart

(Siluh Ayu Satyaningsih)

Waiting for You

Did you ever thinking .... That I was a torch for you I was a light ....??? A light always illuminate Your every move ... I,, I'm not a dim light But I was light Light that will make you away From the darkness .... But I realized, I'm just a light I'm not a princess I'm not a Juliet Who can make you smile and always happy .... For the moment it is not easy for Me .... You out of darkness But I will never give up Always trying to lighting you Although it takes a long time .... But I'll still wait Until you can smile again ... ...

(Sri Yunani)

I Didn't Stop Hoping

I have long time to wait you in here
I wish with you
In the night very silent
I always waiting you
I'm tired, so until when I wait you ...???
The long time
And then I can't find you in here
So until when???
I'm not able see you and him
I have wished you
Although unrequited love
I'm direct to wait for
One time I can get you

(Sri Diana)

Learn

In my life, I learned how To love, to smile, to be happy
To be strong, to work hard
To be honest, and to be faithful
But I couldn't learn how Stop remembering you
I want to live in your eyes
Die in your arms and buried
In your heart
The most beautiful remembrance
Is the time with you
I will always in your heart

(Prayogi Indra K.)

You're My Everything

When I went to bed My last thought was of you When I woke up this morning My first thought was of you You're my everything, my sun, my stars, my sky You're my everything And this is reason why .... For when we met it was choice Choice to be your friend For when we first laughed together I knew it was meant to be For when I feel in love I know you had falling in love with me You're my everything, my breath Belongs to you You're my everything and I'll always Love you And what more I know you'll always love me to ....

(Yuliasari)

Don't Close You

I'm not that looked perfect
at your eye
I'm not that always is present timely
I'm not who can give what does you want
I just a that ever, try perfect
at your eye
A that try to understand and notice you
If you know, trick that I sails through, to get its whole your heart
Concede me ever with you

(Roni Haryono)

And if You Know

If you know ...

The sore hearts waiting for ...

Poignant to wait

I remember times of day

Nights when I miss you

Do you understand your wish not to make myself vulnerable???

Do you understand when I did not cry because of rains???

Do you understand this feeling does not kill me??? In the dark

I just need a ray of light from you

And if you know .....

Someday you will find my body

Lay waiting for your love

And if you know ....

My heart you will remain, although the soul is in a different world
